ACCUMULATING POINTS - POINTS ARE BASED ON HORSE AND RIDER COMBINATION

When entering at shows, you may use the horse's registered name or barn name, but the same name must be used throughout the season. If you use different names at different shows for the same horse, there is a good chance the horse's points will be split up. If this happens, it is your responsibility to notify home office. It's your responsibility to use the same name for your horse at every show. You may receive points on more than one horse. You do not have to list your horses on this form. When you enter at shows we will find your name and horses names for points.

By submitting this form to IBRA, the Member agrees to all terms of this form and to be subject to all bylaws, policies, rules, and regulations of IBRA whether in existence at the time of becoming a member or thereafter while such person or entity is a member.
